CARRIE BENFORD ENDS LIFE IN SPECIALS!

OBSERVATION

By En Quad

Well we see it finally happened. C. M. Clay, City Safety Director under Mayor B. T. Hedges has handed in his resignation. One of his excuses for quitting the job was that the mayor was going to "put the rollers under him" after Nov. 5th, and another was that he was tired of being director in name only. An accounting of some $350 in donations to the needy poor, was taken from the director's hands and, placed in another's.

E. F. Anderson and his wife are preparing to remove from their farm in Saltcreek-twp, to their flat over the Zenker Bros. monumental works, for the winter. The Andersons spend the summer at their beautiful country place in Saltcreek-twp and their winters in Circleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Price Ashbrook of Route 7, Chillicothe, across the line in Ross-co, have two children in the Circleville public schools. Speaks well of the faculty of C. H. S. We are proud of our schools, and know the Ashbrooks will never regret having made the decision to educate their children here.

Only one thing marred the pride of the Directors of the Circleville Pumpkin Show Society in the recent show. For 25 years the Directors and Mayor have worked hand in hand to make the show "bigger and better than ever" and to make it clean and void of all gambling devices. This year, we notice, a cog in the machinery slipped. We are sorry that this happened, and if an oversight, hope it will not happen again. Circleville has the reputation of giving the only clean show, void of any wheel or game of chance, in the state, so let us try to live up to that standard.

Some of our citizens are wondering what has become of the case in the Mayor's court, involving five gallons of "whiskey," an automobile and a man. If he was fined we would like to know it; if he was turned loose some more of us would like to know why.

At the coming election Tuesday next, the voter will be asked to vote for a 3-mill levy for five years for school purposes. Should this levy fail to pass it means that instead of a nine months school term, the term would have to be cut to eight months and possibly to seven months. Besides other curtailments in the faculty in reference to the number of teachers and salaries paid will have to be made.

Surely we do not want to sacrifice the education of our children by a shorter term or less qualified instructors! Our schools must meet certain requirement under the Laws of Ohio, to have the scholars that desire, eligible for college work. Let us all get behind this levy and give it a big vote for "Yes" thereby guaranteeing to our children the one thing no one can take from them—a good education.

Certain persons are spreading propaganda that the Democratic candidate for Mayor has promised this fellow and that person certain jobs that fall to him for appointment. In conversation with Mr. Henn we learn that he has promised nothing to any one and if elected will go into office with his hands free, obligated to no one.

He is conducting a clean campaign, facing the public on his reputation as a good citizen, and deserving the support of all loyal Democrats, as well as Republicans, who want to make Circleville a better place in which to live. If you want to "clean-up" now is the time to do it by casting your ballot with the Democrats.

A few gentlemen from Circleville are sponsoring a lecture course here this winter, the first number of which will be given at the Memorial Hall on Nov. 13th. The personnel of the Lundberg-Scott company, in a musical concert entertainment, the first number of five, follows:

Mr. Scott is a tenor—and a good one—plays the cello, banjo and a comedian of note. Edna Lundberg (Mrs. Scott) sings beautifully, plays the piano and her readings are worth going a long way to hear. Dorothy Bracken, the third member of the company, is an exceptional musician. She really makes her violin talk, laugh, sob and sing. She also sings and dances, is a talented all-around entertainer with a lively and winning platform personality. The program they offer for your (Continued on page 5.)

RUTTER TRIAL IS UNDER WAY

Complete Jury Trial Wednesday—Four State Witnesses.

Four state's witnesses had been called in the case of the State against Mose Rutter for stealing chickens at noon Thursday, and indications were that the trial would last through Friday and possibly part of Saturday.

Thirty witnesses are yet to be called, most of which are defense witnesses.

The task of obtaining a jury suitable for both the defense and the prosecution was finished late Wednesday after three venues had been practically exhausted.

The permanent jury selected and which is seated in the order named is:

Dennis Binker, Elmer Beavers, Hartley Peters, Harry Abbott, Mrs. Charles Mason, Everett Beavers, Mrs. Laura King, Everett Eakins, J. E. Pitt, Mrs. B. K. Clapp, Fred Riggins and Fred Ebert.

Opening statements were made by Prosecuting Attorney Emmitt L. Crist and Paul Adkins.

Two witnesses, O. B. Armstrong and Sheriff Frank Davis were heard Wednesday, and Deputy Sheriff Carl Porter was one of the two witnesses questioned this morning.

LOCAL MAN IS IN BIG ORCHESTRA

Dwight Weiler, Circleville's violin artist, left Thursday for an extensive tour with Marion McKay's Victor Recording orchestra. Dwight will be first violinist, which proves that his talent is acknowledged by the musical work as well as his friends.

The McKay orchestra is well known here, having spent two weeks recently at Valley Dale. Mr. McKay is a Wilmington, O., man and takes pride in giving the public good music as well as jazz.

DOANE ELECTED

R. A. Doan, Columbus, who addressed the large gathering at the U. B. church here Tuesday in a Christian Unity Program, was elected to succeed himself as president of the Franklin-co Federated churches at a meeting in Columbus Wednesday.

Two hundred delegates from Protestant churches attended the meeting.

MAYOR'S RACE HERE CREATES MUCH INTEREST

Hedges and Henn Supporters Lined Up For Great Battle Next Tuesday.

The political pot, always of interest in Circleville and Pickaway-co, is steaming almost to a boiling point and with the general election of Nov. 5 only five days hence all indications point to a large turn-out of voters.

The mayoralty race, that between Benton T. Hedges, Republican, the present incumbent, and Willis L. Henn, Democrat, promises to bring a spirited fight from the time the polls open until they are closed.

Much propaganda has been used in the past week or so, some of it for Hedges, some of it for Henn.

Another contest in the Circleville election is that between Paul Helwagen, Democrat, present city treasurer, and Simon Frank, Republican.

Helwagen defeated Frank Haines at the primary polling a vote of 303, to Haines' 265. Frank was returned 21 votes with no opposition in the Republican primary.

The third contest will be for the offices of councilman-at-large where three are to be elected.

E. S. Neuding, Frank Marion and W. F. Baker were nominated with no opposition on the Democratic ticket, but Mack Parrett, Jr., was named on the Republican ticket and will afford opposition.

John C. Goeller, Democrat, is unopposed for president of council, as are Miss Lillian Young (D) for auditor and Paul Adkins (D) for city solicitor.

There is no contest for Ward councilmen where C. O. Leist (D) Ward 1; J. H. Helwagen (D) Ward 2; Clark Will (R) Ward 3; and T. M. Barnes (D) Ward 4 are nominated.

Renewal of the three mill levy for school purposes in Darby-twp and Circleville city are asked by the voters.

VOTE FOR LEVY

The levy has been passed three times before for five years each time and there is no reason why the issue should be turned down now. Practically every voter knows that to turn down this three mill levy for school purposes would mean that the school term of nine months would have to be reduced to eight or possibly seven. Other things which are very necessary to students would have to be cut if this levy failed to pass the voters.

Jackson-twp will be asked to approve a $100,000 bond issue for the erection of a new high school building.

Voters of Wayne-twp will more than likely approve a $40,000 bond issue for a new centralized school.

A $20,000 bond issue will be submitted to the voters in Scioto-twp for a new auditorium and gymnasium. The state has appropriated $5,000 for the work, providing the bond issue is approved. In order to relieve congestion of the school, it is proposed to construct two classrooms out of the present auditorium and to build a new combination gymnasium and auditorium.

VILLAGE CONTESTS

Contests are revealed in two villages and a number of townships, the latter facing hot fights for boards of trustees and boards of election.

Circleville-twp, which has heretofore had two justices of the peace, has been restricted to only one and four men are after that. The present J. P.'s E. C. Friece and George Strawser are after the lone office as well as George R. Whitehurst and Sterling M. Lamb.

In Circleville there will be a contest for board of education with two to be elected out of three candidates.

J. R. Noecker is seeking re-election, and the office held by Judge E. A. Brown, who is not seeking re-election, is being sought by Lawrence Goeller and Donald Watt.

Mystery, Eggs Left of What Was Automobile

Considerable mystery and a great many hard boiled eggs surround the remains of what was once an automobile. The small heap of twisted metal that is lying at the side of the road a mile north of town on the Columbus-pk is the solution to the fire that was seen there last night.

The car evidently going at a great rate of speed, skidded on the slippery road, plowed into the fence, and turned over onto the third rail of the Scioto Valley traction tracks. Whether the driver escaped, and how he escaped is still to be learned. The contact with the electricity melted the third rail in two places.

The remains of the automobile would not fill a wheelbarrow, the springs even being melted. The man may have been a butter and egg man, for signs of eggs evidently fresh recently, and now nicely roasted, are strewn over the railway right-of-way. Out of the jumble of melted steel stands the fragile inside section of a thermos bottle.

Red color matter on glass in the grass could not be identified but it is either blood, or heat from the electricity that passed through the body of the car.

"Buy" Is Wall Street Cry As John Q. Public Comes Back To Stock Market

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—"Buy" That was the cry in Wall Street today. John Q. Public is coming back into the stock market, and in a big way.

Long before the New York stock exchange opened for the day—at noon, two hours later than customary—great crowds of small investors, many of them new customers, swarmed into brokerage and investment houses in the financial district with cash in their pockets, or checks in their wallets eager to "get in" on the buying of the rising stock market.

At "60 Wall Street," Henry L. Doherty and company, a prominent investment house, the corridors and waiting rooms were jammed with customers when the International News Service reporter pushed his way through. "I want to buy so many shares of such and such," men and women were saying to weary-eyed salesmen.

Nobody seemed to be selling. Everybody was buying, according to an official of the company. Confidence had supplanted fear and hysteria. Eighty salesmen, worn to the point of exhaustion, were taking orders as fast as they came.

They were "all in," having had practically no sleep all week.

Ezra Keaton, Ohio-st, charged with selling intoxicating liquor, pleaded guilty before Probate Judge E. A. Brown late Wednesday and was fined $500 and costs and committed to the Cincinnati workhouse until the fine and costs are paid.

Mrs. Maude Valentine pleaded guilty to a charge of possessing intoxicating liquor and was fined $200 and costs and committed to the county jail. She pleaded not guilty to a charge of selling liquor and will be given a trial on that charge later.

Mrs. Addie Lucas, colored, pleaded guilty to charges of selling and possessing but sentence has not yet been passed. She is being held in the county jail.

Richard Carpenter, pleaded guilty to a charge of possession and not guilty to a charge of selling. Sentence was deferred and bond was fixed at $200 which he failed to furnish.

John Smith pleaded not guilty to a charge of selling liquor and was returned to the jail under $200 bond.

All five of the charges were filed by state dry agents following alleged "buys" during the Pumpkin Show two weeks ago.

LAKE GUARDS GET BIG LIQUOR BOAT

CLEVELAND, Oct. 31.—(INS)—Coast guard guns today halted a 28-foot rum boat and resulted in the capture of its pilot and cargo of 29 casks of Canadian whiskey off the Lake Erie shore at 185th-st here.

The pilot of the craft attempted to escape by jumping overboard, but he was hauled aboard the coast guard cutter with boat hooks. He said he left Kingsville, Ont., with his cargo last night. The rum running boat was licensed to a Cleveland man.

Wales Is Wise Guy After All

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(INS.)—Here is the Prince of Wales' own explanation of why he doesn't marry as given in an article written by Evelyn Graham in the magazine "Britannia and I," published today.

"During 12 hours of every day, I have to be what other people want me to be," the writer quotes the Prince. "During the rest of the time, I can be myself. If I married, I should have to spend the rest of my time being what my wife wanted me to be."

Public Career Recalled E. Burton's Funeral

Found Much Time To Write, Last Works Being Corporations and the State.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 31.—(INS)—While thousands of Ohioans today mourned during the funeral of Senator Theodore E. Burton, of Ohio, who died in Washington his public career was recalled.

He was long a figure in Republican national politics and was probably better versed in the governmental method of dealing with river and harbor situations than any other man in the country.

He was a deep student of the problems of the national government and was a faithful adherent to the principles of Republicanism. The senator was born in a small town, Ohio, December 20, and received his higher education at Grand River Institute, and Oberlin, Ohio, having its car graduated from the latter in 1872. He received a degree in L. L. D. from Oberlin college in 1900, and from Dartmouth in 1901 and Ohio University in 1919.

Burton's first dip into politics came when he was elected a member of the Lower House of the 51 Congress. The Reed, of Maine, was speaker of the House at that time.

He dropped out of the House for the succeeding four years, in December, 1895, reappearing in Washington as a member of the 54 Congress. He was re-elected for the next six sessions.

He came a power recognized in the White House, whether of large Fur Collar and Cuff president was his policy. Also a limited number of Fur Fabric Coats.

Burton was re-elected to the 61 Congress as a representative of Ohio, but he did not take his seat in January, 1909, the Ohio assembly chose Burton as States senator, and he refused to run for a second term, though it was the he easily could have obtained majority vote.

During his service in the Ohio senate, Burton was chairman of the committee on rivers and harbors. In the senate, Ohioan served on the committee on Canadian relations, commerce, expenditures in the treasury department, foreign relations, immigration, library, Mississippi river and its tributaries and national banks.

He was admitted to the bar in 1875 and began the practice of law in Cleveland, where he made his residence. In 1907, during his last term in the House of Representatives, Burton was the Republican nominee for mayor of Cleveland, but he went down to defeat before Thomas L. Johnson, who made his fight on the platform for a three-cent fare on the municipally-operated street cars.

Ezra Keaton Gets $500; Mrs. Valentine, $200; Two Others Plead Guilty.

Ezra Keaton, Ohio-st, charged with selling intoxicating liquor, pleaded guilty before Probate Judge E. A. Brown late Wednesday and was fined $500 and costs and committed to the Cincinnati workhouse until the fine and costs are paid.

Mrs. Maude Valentine pleaded guilty to a charge of possessing intoxicating liquor and was fined $200 and costs and committed to the county jail. She pleaded not guilty to a charge of selling liquor and will be given a trial on that charge later.

Mrs. Addie Lucas, colored, pleaded guilty to charges of selling and possessing but sentence has not yet been passed. She is being held in the county jail.

Richard Carpenter, pleaded guilty to a charge of possession and not guilty to a charge of selling. Sentence was deferred and bond was fixed at $200 which he failed to furnish.

John Smith pleaded not guilty to a charge of selling liquor and was returned to the jail under $200 bond.

All five of the charges were filed by state dry agents following alleged "buys" during the Pumpkin Show two weeks ago.

LAKE GUARDS GET BIG LIQUOR BOAT

CLEVELAND, Oct. 31.—(INS)—Coast guard guns today halted a 28-foot rum boat and resulted in the capture of its pilot and cargo of 20 casks of Canadian whiskey off the Lake Erie shore at 185th-st here.

The pilot of the craft attempted to escape by jumping overboard, but he was hauled aboard the coast guard cutter with boat hooks. He said he left Kingsville, Ont., with his cargo last night. The rum running boat was licensed to a Cleveland man.

Wales Is Wise Guy After All

LONDON, Oct. 31.—(INS.)—Here is the Prince of Wales' own explanation of why he doesn't marry as given in an article written by Evelyn Graham in the magazine "Britannia and I," published today.

"During 12 hours of every day, I have to be what other people want me to be," the writer quotes the Prince. "During the rest of the time, I can be myself. If I married, I should have to spend the rest of my time being what my wife wanted me to be."

"Buy" Is Wall Street Cry As John Q. Public Comes Back To Stock Market

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—"Buy!" That was the cry in Wall Street today. John Q. Public is coming back into the stock market, and in a big way.

Long before the New York stock exchange opened for the day—at noon, two hours later than customary—great crowds of small investors, many of them new customers, swarmed into brokerage and investment houses in the financial district with cash in their pockets or checks in their wallets eager to "get in" on the buying side of the rising stock market.

At "60 Wall Street," Henry L. Doherty and company, a prominent investment house, the corridors and waiting rooms were jammed with customers when the International News Service reporter pushed his way through. "I want to buy so many shares of such and such," men and women were saying to weary-eyed salesmen.

Nobody seemed to be selling. Everybody was buying, according to an official of the company. Confidence had supplanted fear and hysteria. Eighty salesmen, worn to the point of exhaustion, were taking orders as fast as they came. They were "all in," having had practically no sleep all week. At "39 Broadway," John Muir

Public Career Recall E. Burton's Funeral

Found Much Time To Write, Last Works Being Corporations and the State.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 31.—(INS.)—While thousands of Ohioans today mourned during the funeral of Senator Theodore E. Burton, of Ohio, who died in Washington his public career was recalled.

He was long a figure in Republican national politics and was probably better versed in the governmental method of dealing with river and harbor situations than any other man in the country.

He was a deep student of problems of the national government and was a faithful adherent to the principles of Republicanism.

The senator was born in A. C. C. Co., Ohio, December 20, and received his higher education at Grand River Institute, Oberlin, Ohio, having its for Sport graduated from the latter in 1872. He received a degree in L. D. from Oberlin college in 1890, and from Dartmouth in 1900 and Ohio University in 1919.

Burton's first dip into politics came when he was elected a member of the Lower House of the 51 Congress. The Reed, of Maine, was speaker of the House at that time.

He dropped out of the line for the succeeding four years, in December, 1895, reappeared in Washington as a member of the 54 Congress. He was re-elected for the next six sessions and came a power recognized in the White House, whether or not president was of his political party. Also a limited number of Fur Fabric Coats.

Burton was re-elected to the 61 Congress as a representative, but he did not take his seat in January, 1909, the Ohio assembly chose Burton as a States senator, and he remained in the lower house. He as senator expired March 5, and he refused to run for a second term, though it was the he easily could have obtained majority vote.

During his service in the Ohio House, Burton was chairman of the committee on river and harbors. In the senate, he served on the committee on Canadian relations, commerce, expenditures in the treasury department, foreign relations, immigration, library, Mississippi river and its tributaries and national banks.

He was admitted to the bar in 1875 and began the practice of law in Cleveland, where he made his residence. In 1907, during his last term in the House of Representatives, Burton was the Republican nominee for mayor of Cleveland, but he went down to defeat before Thomas L. Johnson, who made his fight on the platform for a three-cent fare on the municipally-operated street cars.

THEATRES
AT THE MET
If only one reason were needed for the continued success of talking pictures that reason could well be William Powell.
Here is an actor who has seemed born for the "talkies." Brilliant performer that he appeared to be in his earlier work in the noiseless mummery of the silent screen, he is by contrast, a veritable demigod of dramatics in the newly vocalized screen world. We saw and heard Powell yesterday at the Met theatre in "The Greene Murder Case."

It is a great play, thrilling, tense packed with action and amazing plot situations. It is better than "The Canary Murder Case," because the crimes seem more baffling of solution, because the story carries a greater number of amazing surprises.
It deals with the misfortunes of the strange Greene family, a bedridden paralytic mother and her four children. With a fortune at stake should she die, the household is suddenly gripped by a series of tragic killings.

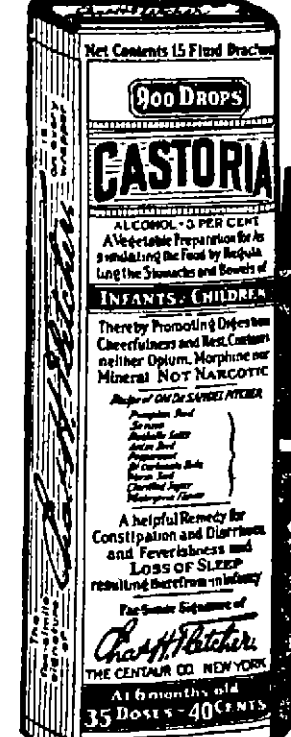

It is top-notch entertainment. Well it should be. It has great plot material; a supporting cast which includes Florence Eldridge, Morgan Harley, Jean Arthur, E. H. Calvert, Eugene Pallette and many other stage-trained actors.

TO THE VOTERS OF PICK-AWAY COUNTY:
I wish to call your attention to my candidacy for membership on the County Board of Education. For thirteen years I was a class room teacher. For six years I served on the Board of County School Examiners. For the past twenty-three years I have been superintendent of the Methodist Sunday School in Adelphi. At the present time I am engaged in farming, and serving on the Board of Education of Saltcreek Township. If elected to this office I pledge my best efforts in behalf of the schools of the county. Your vote and support will be appreciated. Election November 5.

If Baby has COLIC

Castoria is a gentle laxative for infants and children. It is a safe and sensible thing when children are ailing. Whether it's the stomach, or the little bowels; colic or constipation; or diarrhea. When tiny tongues are coated, or the breath is bad. Whenever there's need of gentle regulation. Children love the taste of Castoria, and its mildness makes it suitable for the tiniest infant, and for frequent use.
And a more liberal dose of Castoria is always better for growing children than some needlessly strong medicine meant only for adult use. Genuine Castoria always has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper. Prescribed by doctors!

The Pumpkin Show is over but we cannot fail to comment on the attitude of a number of our business men in regard to window decorations. Some of the windows were beautiful and showed art and care in their preparation, but many did not display their wares to any advantage. This is a time for the business man to get all he can out of his merchandise and the real and only way to get results is effective window display with proper decoration. Think this over Mr. Merchant and plan to have a fine window next year. It will set the show off better and do you a world of good. Just try it and see the result.

Attention is directed to the election of a City Treasurer, on Tuesday next. On the Democratic ticket Paul D. Helwage, appointed to the position, in place of George W. Myers, resigned, has served two years, or one term. He is a candidate to succeed himself. He is worthy, and the kind of young men we want to keep lined up in the party. He is a Democrat to the core, being a son of E. E. Helwage ex-county commissioner from Deercreek-twp, and on his mother's side a grandson of David A. Adkins, also an ex-commissioner of Deercreek-twp, both of whom were elected on the Democratic ticket, and both of whom were always leaders of their party. The City Treasurer's job is one that requires care and exactness. His books and accounts have been kept in splendid condition, and a recent inspection of the books by the Bureau of Accounting gave praise to their neatness and accuracy. Helwage, on party principle, "That one good term serves another," should be returned to the office by a large vote.

Justice Is Not Blind!

AN ANCIENT PREJUDICE HAS BEEN REMOVED

Justice is no longer dispensed by ignorant and individual domination. Another ancient prejudice stands convicted by AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE which insists that a jury "twelve good men, tried and true" decide the facts.

"toasting did it" —

Gone is that ancient prejudice against cigarettes—Progress has been made. We removed the prejudice against cigarettes when we removed harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from the tobaccos.

YEARS ago, when cigarettes were made without the aid of modern science, there originated that ancient prejudice against all cigarettes. That criticism is no longer justified. LUCKY STRIKE, the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the choicest tobacco, properly aged and skillfully blended—"It's Toasted."

"TOASTING," the most modern step in cigarette manufacture, removes from LUCKY STRIKE harmful irritants which are present in cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way.

Everyone knows that heat purifies, and so "TOASTING"—LUCKY STRIKE'S extra secret process—removes harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from LUCKIES which in the old-fashioned manufacture of cigarettes cause throat irritation and coughing. Thus "TOASTING" has destroyed that ancient prejudice against cigarette smoking by men and by women.

TAX AMENDMENT

More than $15,000,000 worth of intangible property is escaping taxation in Ohio according to L. B. Palmer, chairman of the All Ohio Tax League. A surprising amount of this property which is not being returned for taxation because of the confiscatory rates under the Uniform Rule, is to be found in this county. This is indicated by the following figures: according to the most recent report of the Ohio Tax Commission this county is being taxed on $39,559,000 worth of real property; $19,751,950 worth of tangible property; and $4,972,140 of intangible property.

Included in the tangible personal property are public utilities valued at $13,701,000 most of which should be included under real property as most of this is real estate. Included in the intangible personal property is $1,589,125 of money on deposit in banks of this county.

It is of course impossible to arrive at any exact valuation of the intangibles in either this county or the state, but moneys on deposit, mortgages, and building and loan assets can be either exactly obtained or very closely estimated from state reports. State banks in this county have a total of $1,440,000 on deposit, and national banks have $635,000 on deposit. A total of these two may well be contrasted with the amount of money returned for deposit as shown above. In the case of state banks public moneys have been deducted but this is not separately listed in the national bank deposits. However, seven per cent of the deposits in the state banks are public moneys so the same ratio may be used with national banks.

There is no way of arriving at the exact total of mortgages in effect in this county, however, economists generally agree on a rule which says that the average mortgage runs conservatively for three years. As a result a reliable estimate can be obtained by multiplying the mortgages filed in any one year by three. On this basis this county has mortgages valued at $17,277,477.

Building and loan assets for this county amount to $220,082. This includes the real estate and tangible personal property of the building and loan companies, but as that amounts to only two per cent it is not a very big item.

Contrasting the sum of these three types of intangibles with total intangible personal property taxed in this county it will be seen that a great amount is escaping. This is doubly so when one considers that intangible personal property also includes credits, inventories, stocks and bonds, annuities, and bank stocks for which no figures can be obtained. If these figures could be secured the contrast would be even greater. The average tax rate for this county is $14.63 per thousand dollars worth of valuation.

Figures for the state are: Real property $9,361,388,000; Tangible personal property $3,104,642,091; Public utilities $1,568,600,000; Intangible personal $1,029,707,279; Moneys on deposit or subject to draft (tax report, 1927) $286,843,840.

Compare the figure $1,029,707,279, the amount of intangible wealth listed for taxation, with the totals shown above of the various kinds of intangible property actually in existence in Ohio; moneys on deposit in state banks $1,652,909,000; money on deposit in national banks $689,825,000; mortgages $3,795,591,966; building and loan assets $1,035,429,316. These forms of intangible wealth alone total $7,173,755,282.

by ROBERT TERRY SHANNON

CHAPTER XLVIII.

THE only possible consolation he could think of was that he might write her letters and hope for replies. But this ray of hope was so thin, so fragile, that it served only to magnify the hopelessness of his situation. Nevertheless, he clung to it, and tried to imagine that some slight connection might be maintained with her, wherever he went. Very vaguely, he conceived that time could work in his favor—that a day possibly would come when he could return and live down the calumny of gossip.

If he left, the chances were a hundred to one against him—if he stayed his chances were zero. Marian's father came to him in the midst of his labors of wood cutting. Despite Mr. Thorndike's age, Eddie noted the proud, upright carriage of his body—the virile fire in the wilful eyes. Instinctively, he knew there would be no pleasantness in this abrupt visit.

"I want to talk to you, Regan," Mr. Thorndike said. "Are you at leisure?"

"Shoot," Eddie put down his axe. The other looked at him with hot, steady eyes.

"I have come to forbid you to come to my place again or to see my daughter. I warned you that you might expect this if you varied so much as a hair-breadth from the standard I expect from any gentleman." Eddie felt that he was pale and trembling, but he looked squarely at her father.

"I have done my best to keep that standard, Mr. Thorndike," he said in a voice that struggled to be firm. "Of my own free will nothing has occurred that I could help."

"The facts that have come to light speak for themselves," the other blurted out. "I don't know all the sordid details—and I don't want to. You are mixed up with a loose woman who has come from New York and you dared to force yourself upon my daughter!"

The futility of arguing with him rendered Eddie meager of speech. "How can I justify myself if you won't listen?"

"I did not come here to listen to any rigged-up explanations. The facts that everybody knows speak for themselves. I'm perfectly cold-blooded about this, young man; the happiness of the most precious thing on earth to me shall not be jeopardized—her purity shall not be marred by even the presence of a man who flaunts his immorality in the face of the whole community. Personally, I don't care what you do with your life, so long as it does not touch anything belonging to me. This is my last warning to you and I can assure you there will be no second."

Eddie felt the blood rush to his face.

"Does Marian know anything about this?" he asked.

"What Marian knows or does

The cards had fallen against him and he was at the end of his rope. Somehow, despite his best efforts, he had come into the final stretch of a race, and he was the loser.

The future, where he would go and what he would do, seemed of no concern; to him at all. Soon enough

"I have come to forbid you to see my daughter again," said Mr. Thorndike.

not know is no concern of yours from now on, sir. Your attentions to her have been a disgrace. My advice to you, sir, is to forget that you ever met her."

The father turned abruptly and walking away left Eddie fumbling with his axe. Any further work, now, was impossible, was useless. Not until he had entered the house and gone up to his bedroom did he realize that he had walked like a man in a trance, from the woods.

He found himself sitting on the edge of his bed and rubbing his head as though he had just awakened from the wanderings of a somnambulist. He noticed his new chair. When he left he would have very few things to take with him. Slowly, scarcely comprehending the significance of his movements, he went through the activity of

DR. COPELAND SAYS—Food Processes and Health

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
United States Senator from New York.
Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

INTEREST in proper food reaches into every home. All doctors recognize that food plays a vital part in the health of the individual. No one can doubt that it has much to do with the community health.

Not long ago, the American Medical Association held a convention in Portland, Maine. To this gathering came doctors from all over the country. From the large cities, the towns and villages these men foregathered to learn about the progress in medicine and the promotion of health. Every branch of medicine was represented and, quite as important, were the exhibitions of scientific apparatus, equipment, and books used by the profession.

Of particular interest were the exhibitions provided by the leading food concerns of the country. A honey-producing group showed in their exhibit how milk may be modified with honey. They also demonstrated many dietary and therapeutic uses which may be made of this natural sugar.

Another booth gave out data about gelatin. Fifty ways of preparing this food for diabetes alone represented a thought worthy of attention. In addition, its use for child feeding, anaemia and overweight was described. Fruit growers had enlightening information for the visiting doctors. One group had canned orange juice which retains all the vitamin content. It was demonstrated to be comparable to that of the strictly fresh fruit.

Two women conceived the idea of canning food meant particularly for children. These foods are put through a sieve then canned without loss of the essential elements.

There were many other displays intended to show the necessity of proper foodstuffs. Demonstrations of methods for modifying cow's milk, to make it a worthy substitute for mother's milk, deserve particular mention. I wish it were possible to hold such an exhibition in every community in North America. It would be of great benefit to mothers of babies and of children of all ages. Any demonstration showing how to improve the foodstuffs of a people is a thing that will surely improve its health.

Answers to Health Queries

C. M. Q.—How can a small mole be removed from the side of my nose?

A.—It would be wise to consult a skin specialist who will probably remove it with the use of the electric needle.

T. M. W. Q.—What can I do to prevent my chin from bleeding when I shave?

A.—Shave very lightly. Try shaving cream which comes in a tube like tooth paste. Moisten the face and rub the cream into the skin, then wash off the ather with warm water and shave, keeping face damp with water.

L. B. Q.—What causes nausea at the pit of the stomach while eating?

A.—You may be troubled with hyperacidity due to an acid condition of the stomach. The diet should be corrected and other treatment advised. For details send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

MRS. A. Q.—What do you advise for intestinal worms?

A.—Send self-addressed stamped envelope and repeat your question. Copyright, 1929, Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.

Normality Tested

"Name a number between five and twelve," said a psychologist to me recently, writes a correspondent. "Ten," I replied. "And a color," he demanded. "Orange," I murmured. "Absolutely abnormal," he snapped. It appears that if one is perfectly normal the replies are "Seven" and "Blue." I found that out of 20 people, including clerks, advocates, journalists and hostesses, 10 of them gave normal responses—"Seven" and "Blue." The reasons for this are said to be that most people believe seven to be a lucky number and blue is a favorite color. Try it on your friends.

47 Years' Practice Taught Dr. Caldwell

Many things about Men and Women

DR. CALDWELL loved people.

He studied the habits of his patients and tried to improve their ways of living. His observations over a long period of time convinced him many people were ruining their health by a careless choice of laxatives. Then he determined to write a prescription which would get at the cause of constipation and correct it quickly and safely.

How successful his efforts were is best shown by the fact that the prescription he wrote back in 1885 has become the world's most popular laxative! He prescribed a mixture of herbs and other pure ingredients now known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, in thousands of cases where bad breath, coated tongue, gas, headaches, biliousness, and lack of appetite, or energy showed him that the bowels of men, women or children were sluggish. It proved successful in the most obstinate cases. So men liked it. Old folks liked it because it never gripes. Children liked its pleasant taste. And everybody is pleased with the gentle way it accomplishes its purpose.

By 1888, the demand for this laxative was so great that the doctor permitted it to be bottled and sold by druggists. Today you can obtain Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin from any drugstore in the world.

TAX AMENDMENT

More than $15,000,000 worth of intangible property is escaping taxation in Ohio according to L. B. Palmer, chairman of the All Ohio Tax League. A surprising amount of this property which is not being returned for taxation because of the confiscatory rates under the Uniform Rule, is to be found in this county. This is indicated by the following figures: according to the most recent report of the Ohio Tax Commission this county is being taxed on $39,558,000 worth of real property; $19,751,950 worth of tangible property; and $4,972,140 of intangible property.

Included in the tangible personal property are public utilities valued at $13,701,000 most of which should be included under real property as most of this is real estate. Included in the intangible personal property is $1,589,125 of money on deposit in banks of this county.

It is of course impossible to arrive at any exact valuation of the intangibles in either this county or the state, but moneys on deposit, mortgages, and building and loan assets can be either exactly obtained or very closely estimated from state reports. State banks in this county have a total of $1,440,000 on deposit, and national banks have $635,000 on deposit. A total of these two may well be contrasted with the amount of money returned for deposit as shown above. In the case of state banks public moneys have been deducted but this is not separately listed in the national bank deposits. However, seven per cent of the deposits in the state banks are public moneys so the same ratio may be used with national banks.

There is no way of arriving at the exact total of mortgages in effect in this county, however, economists generally agree on a rule which says that the average mortgage runs conservatively for three years. As a result a reliable estimate can be obtained by multiplying the mortgages listed in any one year by three. On this basis this county has mortgages valued at $17,277,477.

Building and loan assets for this county amount to $220,082. This includes the real estate and tangible personal property of the building and loan companies, but as that amounts to only two per cent it is not a very big item.

Contrasting the sum of these three types of intangibles with total intangible personal property taxed in this county it will be seen that a great amount is escaping. This is doubly so when one considers that intangible personal property also includes credits, inventories, stocks and bonds, annuities and bank stocks for which no figures can be obtained. If these figures could be secured the contrast would be even greater. The average tax rate for this county is $14.63 per thousand dollars worth of valuation.

Figures for the state are: Real property $9,361,358,000; Tangible personal property $2,104,642,091; Public utilities $1,568,600,000; Intangible personal $1,029,707,279; Moneys on deposit or subject to draft (tax report, 1927) $286,843,840.

Compare the figure $1,029,707,279, the amount of intangible wealth listed for taxation, with the totals shown above of the various kinds of intangible property actually in existence in Ohio: moneys on deposit in state banks $1,652,909,000; money on deposit in national banks $689,825,000; mortgages $3,785,591,956; building and loan assets $1,035,429,316. These forms of intangible wealth alone total $7,173,755,252.

THE GOBLIN'LL GET YOU

Blue Blood And Red

by ROBERT TERRY SHANNON

CHAPTER XLVIII.

THE only possible consolation he could think of was that he might write her letters and hope for replies. But this ray of hope was so thin, so fragile, that it served only to magnify the hopelessness of his situation. Nevertheless, he clung to it, and tried to imagine that some slight connection might be maintained with her, wherever he went. Very vaguely, he conceived that time could work in his favor—that a day possibly would come when he could return and live down the calamity of gossip.

If he left, the chances were a hundred to one against him—if he stayed his chances were zero. Marian's father came to him in the midst of his labors of wood cutting. Despite Mr. Thorndike's age, Eddie noted the proud, upright carriage of his body—the virile fire in the wilful eyes. Instinctively, he knew there would be no pleasantness in this abrupt visit.

"I want to talk to you, Regan," Mr. Thorndike said. "Are you at leisure?"

"Shoot," Eddie put down his axe. The other looked at him with not steady eyes.

"I have come to forbid you to come to my place again or to see my daughter. I warned you that you might expect this if you varied so much as a hair-breadth from the standard I expect from any gentleman." Eddie felt that he was pale and trembling, but he looked squarely at her father.

"I have done my best to keep that standard, Mr. Thorndike," he said in a voice that struggled to be firm. "Of my own free will nothing has occurred that I could help."

"The facts that have come to light speak for themselves," the other blurted out. "I don't know all the sordid details—and I don't want to. You are mixed up with a loose woman who has come from New York—and you dared to force yourself upon my daughter!"

The father turned abruptly and walking away left Eddie fumbling with his axe. Any further work, now, was impossible, was useless. Not until he had entered the house and come up to his bedroom did he realize that he had walked like a man in a trance, from the woods.

He found himself sitting on the edge of his bed and rubbing his forehead. He had just awoken, and from the wanderings of a dreamer. He noticed his new suit of clothes hanging over a chair. When he left he would have the pleasure of a man who has found his way out of a maze, with his mind clear and his feet steady. He could care what you do with your life, so long as it does not touch anything belonging to me. This is my last warning to you and I can assure you there will be no second.

Eddie felt the blood rush to his face. "Does Marian know anything about this?" he asked.

"What Marian knows or does bathing and dressing himself afresh. The cards had fallen against him and he was at the end of his rope. Somehow, despite his best efforts, he had come into the final stretch of a race, and he was the loser. The future, where he would go and what he would do, seemed of no concern to him at all. Soon enough not know is no concern of yours from now on, sir. Your attention to her have been a disgrace. My advice to you, sir, is to forget that you ever met her."

he would find out all about that. Whatever it was to be, wouldn't matter. Nothing mattered.

He heard the telephone ringing downstairs and he could conceive of no reason why he should answer it. What could anyone say that was of the slightest importance? The thing could ring till the bells fell off if it wanted to. Slowly, with infinite care, he selected a necktie without having any real choice in the matter. Trivial things like neckties, after all, were the only things that could concern him.

He heard Tobie's voice below calling him to the telephone. "Tell me I'm not home," he called down, listlessly.

The old negro came half way up the stairs. "It's Miss Marian on of wire, suh."

DR. COPELAND SAYS—Food Processes and Health

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
United States Senator from New York.
Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

INTEREST in proper food reaches into every home. All doctors recognize that food plays a vital part in the health of the individual. No one can doubt that it has much to do with the community health.

Not long ago, the American Medical Association held a convention in Portland, Maine. To this gathering came doctors from all over the country. From the large cities, the towns and villages these men flocked together to learn about the progress in medicine and the promotion of health. Every branch of medicine was represented and, quite as important, were the exhibitions of scientific apparatus, equipment, and books used by the profession.

Of particular interest were the exhibitions provided by the leading food concerns of the country. A honey-producing group showed in their exhibit how milk may be modified with honey. They also demonstrated many dietary and therapeutic uses which may be made of this natural sugar.

Another booth gave out data about gelatin. Fifty ways of preparing this food for diabetes alone represented a thought worthy of attention. In addition, its use for child feeding, anemia and overweight was described.

Fruit growers had enlightening information for the visiting doctors. One group had canned orange juice which retains all the vitamin content. It was demonstrated to be as comparable to that of the strictly fresh fruit.

Two women conceived the idea of preparing food especially for children. These foods are put through a sieve, then canned without loss of the essential elements.

There were many other displays intended to show the necessity of proper foodstuffs. Demonstrations of methods for modifying cow's milk, to make it a worthy substitute for mother's milk, deserve particular mention.

I wish it were possible to hold such an exhibition in every community in North America. It would be of great benefit to mothers of babies and of children of all ages. Any demonstration showing how to improve the foodstuffs of a people is a thing that will surely improve its health.

THEATRES

AT THE MET

If only one reason were needed for the continued success of talking pictures that reason could well be William Powell.

Here is an actor who was seemingly born for the "talkies." Brilliant performer that he appeared to be in his earlier work in the noiseless mummery of the silent screen, he is by contrast, a veritable demigod of dramatics in the newly vocalized screen world.

We saw and heard Powell yesterday at the Met theatre in "The Greene Murder Case."

It is a great play, thrilling, tense packed with action and amazing plot situations. It is better than "The Canary Murder Case," because the crimes seem more baffling of solution, because the story carries a greater number of amazing surprises.

It deals with the misfortunes of the strange Greene family, a bed-ridden paralytic mother and her four children. With a fortune at stake should she die, the household is suddenly gripped by a series of tragic killings.

It is top-notch entertainment. Well it should be. It has great plot material; a supporting cast which includes Florence Eldridge, Morgan Harley, Jean Arthur, E. H. Calvert, Eugene Pallette and many other stage-trained actors.

TO THE VOTERS OF PICKAWAY COUNTY:

I wish to call your attention to my candidacy for membership on the County Board of Education. For thirteen years I was a classroom teacher. For six years I served on the Board of County School Examiners. For the past twenty-three years I have been superintendent of the Methodist Sunday School in Adelphi. At the present time I am engaged in farming, and serving on the Board of Education of Salt Creek Township. If elected to this office I pledge my best efforts in behalf of the schools of the county. Your vote and support will be appreciated. Election November 5.

The Pumpkin Show is over but we cannot fail to comment on the attitude of a number of our business men in regard to window decorations. Some of the windows were beautiful and showed art and care in their preparation, but many did not display their wares to any advantage. This is a time for the business man to get all he can out of his merchandise and the real and only way to get results is effective window display with proper decoration. Think this over Mr. Merchant and plan to have a fine window next year. It will set the show off better and do you a world of good. Just try it and see the result.

of Circleville Township
Election November 5th. Your Support Will be Appreciated.

Attention is directed to the election of a City Treasurer, on Tuesday next. On the Democratic ticket Paul D. Helwagen, appointed to the position, in place of George W. Myers, resigned, has served two years, or one term. He is a candidate to succeed himself. He is worthy, and the kind of young men we want to keep lined up in the party. He is a Democrat to the core, being a son of E. F. Helwagen ex-county commissioner from Deercreek-twp, and on his mother's side a grandson of David A. Adkins, also an ex-commissioner of Deercreek-twp, both of whom were elected on the Democratic ticket, and both of whom were always leaders of their party. The City Treasurer's job is one that requires care and exactness. His books and accounts have been kept in splendid condition, and a recent inspection of the books by the Bureau of Accounting gave praise to their neatness and accuracy.

Helwagen, on party principle, "That one good term deserves another," should be returned to the office by a large vote.

Willis Cawley was absent Wednesday from his duties at the Crist department store because of illness.

Justice Is Not Blind!

AN ANCIENT PREJUDICE HAS BEEN REMOVED

Justice is no longer dispensed by ignorant and individual domination. Another ancient prejudice stands convicted by AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE which insists that a jury "twelve good men, tried and true" decide the facts.

"toasting did it" —

Gone is that ancient prejudice against cigarettes—Progress has been made. We removed the prejudice against cigarettes when we removed harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from the tobaccos.

YEARS ago, when cigarettes were made without the aid of modern science, there originated that ancient prejudice against all cigarettes. That criticism is no longer justified. LUCKY STRIKE, the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the choicest tobacco, properly aged and skillfully blended—"It's Toasted."

"TOASTING," the most modern step in cigarette manufacture, removes from LUCKY STRIKE harmful irritants which are present in cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way.

Everyone knows that heat purifies, and so "TOASTING"—LUCKY STRIKE'S extra secret process—removes harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from LUCKIES which in the old-fashioned manufacture of cigarettes cause throat irritation and coughing. Thus "TOASTING" has destroyed that ancient prejudice against cigarette smoking by men and by women.

"It's Toasted"—the phrase that describes the extra "toasting" process applied in the manufacture of Lucky Strike Cigarettes. The finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—are scientifically subjected to penetrating heat at minimum, 260°—maximum, 300°, Fahrenheit. The exact, expert regulation of such high temperatures removes impurities. More than a slogan, "It's Toasted" is recognized by millions as the most modern step in cigarette manufacture.

Seven Thousand Students To Celebrate With Pep Meeting In Campus With Cheer-Leaders and Band Working Over-time—Bill Nesser Named To Replace Bob Horn At Halfback—Pitt Is Confident of Easy Game.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 31.—(INS)—Knowing they are journeying to Pittsburgh with little chances for a victory, Ohio State's football toters today continued their ardent practice sessions while the student body, 7,000 strong, are planning a huge pep meeting for tonight.

Offensive tactics were stressed again at the workout yesterday, and much to the surprise of the on-lookers the varsity eleven was sent into a tackling drill with the dummy. Generally such antics are observed only during the first week of the gridiron season.

But apparently, Coach Sam Williams is not overlooking anything to strengthen his team.

Needless Pain!

Nowadays, people take Bayer Aspirin for many little aches and pains, and as often as they encounter any pain.

Why not? It is a proven, anti-dote for pain. It works!

And Bayer Aspirin tablets are utterly harmless. You have the medical profession's word for that; they do not depress the heart.

So, don't let a cold "run its course." Don't wait for a headache to "wear off." Or regard neuralgia, neuritis, or even rheumatism as something you must endure. Only a physician can cope with the cause of such pain, but you can always turn to Bayer Aspirin for relief.

Bayer Aspirin is always available, and it always helps. Familiarize yourself with its many uses, and avoid a lot of needless suffering.

GABBY STREET IS NEW CARD BOSS

Old Catcher Is Named By Breardon To Succeed Bill McKechnie.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 31.—(INS)—The roster of major league baseball managers boasted of a new name—Gabby Street.

Sam Breardon, president of the St. Louis Nationals' announced that Gabby, for years catcher to Walter Johnson, had been made manager of the Cardinals to succeed Bill McKechnie. Street who has been coach and scout of the Cards for several years will sign a one-year contract.

Street is the fifth manager of the Cardinals in the last four years. He is well-liked by St. Louis fans, knows baseball and should do a good job of bossing the Red Birds. He has been in baseball since 1900 but is taking charge of his first major league team. However, he managed minor league outfits for many years and turned in a good record.

"After every meal my stomach filled with gas and the pressure against my heart was very painful. The attacks of gastritis came over me without warning and the pain was terrible. Then too I had a burning sensation in my stomach that was far from pleasant."

"But Konjola proved to be the very medicine I needed. Just as I was told it would, Konjola worked quickly. After a few weeks' treatment of Konjola there was not a sign of my former stomach troubles. What a relief to be well again, what a joy to be able to eat as a normal person should. I can really understand why Konjola is known as the medicine with more than a million friends."

COUNTY RED CROSS DESERVES PATRONAGE OF EVERY CITIZEN

The one great problem of Pickaway-co chapter, American Red Cross, aside from the steady performances of duty, is to make people understand what the Red Cross is, what it means to a community and why it is still functioning.

In answer we have but to point to its work in a disaster relief, to its efficiency in the stress of emergencies, no matter from what part of the globe the call comes, and the almost phenomenal dispatch with which this organization has discharged its work.

As a local agency it has bravely faced the many duties which challenge its attention. Since the chapter was revived in June, 1923, 900 cases have come under observation. Of these 500 were veterans of the World war, 10 Civil war veterans, 20 Spanish American war and 370 for dependents of all wars.

Through the efforts of the chapter an average of $10,000 a year in back compensations has come into the country and monthly awards range from $9 to $150. In addition to securing compensation for World War Veterans, increase in pensions for dependents, the chapter has assisted in the adjustment or burial claims. This means has a saving to Pickaway-co of several thousand dollars.

One case this year is of more than passing interest. It is that of a widow whose claim for the adjusted compensation was disallowed by the Veterans Bureau. Two years after filing her claim this widow remarried. This case was vigorously contested, resulting in the Bureau finally allowing the widow $1009.

The chapter has entered many active fields, in hospital and home work, surgical operations, union of families, relief, etc. Veterans of dependents come in to have their problems solved.

The Veterans Bureau and secretaries from chapters in this and other states ask assistance in locating missing men or securing affidavits in order to establish a

WILLIAMSPORT VS. ASHVILLE

Play Tough Football Game at Williamsport Friday—Brothers Coaches.

A battle of brothers is scheduled for Williamsport Friday when the Williamsport high school team, coached by Herman Kauber defends its laurels against Ashville's fast team coached by Herman Kauber's brother.

Both teams have been going good. Last week Williamsport held Clarksburg to a 0 to 0 draw, while Ashville was defeated in the last minute of play by Groveport, 20-13.

A wet field had a lot to do with the scoreless tie of the Williamsport contest with Clarksburg.

Sensational football, the like of which has never been seen in Pickaway-co, was put out at Ashville last week and if the Ashville boys play just a slightly tighter defensive game things are going to be plenty tough for Williamsport.

Drawing a Line

As a matter of practice we know that a line can be drawn, as we make use of drawn lines all through our lifetime. As a matter of mathematical theory a line has length, but no breadth or thickness, and from that point of view it is impossible to draw a line without giving it some breadth or thickness.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Even the most optimistic of Ohio's rooters are not betting that the Buckeyes will win. Stories from the Pittsburgh camp are circulating here, that the eastern team will take an easy game from William's cohorts. They may be "bear" stories, but they probably aren't.

Bill Radebaugh, varsity cheerleader, will direct the huge rally tonight. Red lights will be set afire in all parts of the campus and the Bucks' famous band will parade.

The chapter has entered many active fields, in hospital and home work, surgical operations, union of families, relief, etc. Veterans of dependents come in to have their problems solved.

The Veterans Bureau and secretaries from chapters in this and other states ask assistance in locating missing men or securing affidavits in order to establish a claim. There is a human interest in every story. Funds are not wasted. In prosecuting a claim all expense is borne by the chapter.

WILLIAMSPORT VS. ASHVILLE

Play Tough Football Game at Williamsport Friday—Brothers Coaches.

A battle of brothers is scheduled for Williamsport Friday when the Williamsport high school team, coached by Herman Kauber, defends its laurels against Ashville's fast team coached by Herman Kauber's brother.

Both teams have been going good. Last week Williamsport held Clarksburg to a 0 to 0 draw, while Ashville was defeated in the last minute of play by Groveport, 20-13.

A wet field had a lot to do with the scoreless tie of the Williamsport contest with Clarksburg.

Sensational football, the like of which has never been seen in Pickaway-co, was put out at Ashville last week and if the Ashville boys play just a slightly tighter defensive game things are going to be plenty tough for Williamsport.

Drawing a Line

As a matter of practice we know that a line can be drawn, as we make use of drawn lines all through our lifetime. As a matter of mathematical theory a line has length, but no breadth or thickness, and from that point of view it is impossible to draw a line without giving it some breadth or thickness.

What, When and Where

"The great thing in life is to know what we're wanting." Yes, and where.

Mrs. L. B. James and Miss Besse Frey spent Thursday in Columbus.

Mrs. Don Morris is spending the week-end with Mrs. S. E. Newton in Cleveland.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Needless Pain!

Nowadays, people take Bayer Aspirin for many little aches and pains, and as often as they encounter any pain.

Why not? It is a proven antidote for pain. It works!

And Bayer Aspirin tablets are utterly harmless. You have the medical profession's word for that; they do not depress the heart.

So, don't let a cold "run its course." Don't wait for a headache to "wear off." Or regard neuralgia, neuritis, or even rheumatism as something you must endure. Only a physician can cope with the cause of such pain, but you can always turn to Bayer Aspirin for relief.

Bayer Aspirin is always available, and it always helps. Familiarize yourself with its many uses, and avoid a lot of needless suffering.

Fake Money Won; Lost At Club House Hallowe'en Frolic

The club house of the Pickaway Country club was crowded Wednesday night by more than 250 members and friends at the first Hallowe'en frolic. Interspersed among the guests were several in costume who had charge of the various departments of entertainment. The most picturesque were three men in charge of the desperate gambling machines, at which hundreds of thousands of dollars were won and lost. These characters were Diamond Dick, Red Joe and Danny McGree, in high hats, colored vests and frock coats. They presided at the roulette wheel, which stood near the open fire place in the card room.

On the club house porch, a hideous looking witch hovered over a fish pond. Here also were the faro tables, where several odd fortunes were made and lost, and many a guest was forced to borrow $50.00 to purchase a doughnut and coffee.

Another wheel of chance was in action on the porch where for the sum of $10,000 one could buy a whoopee dog, or an office cat. Everyone made a great deal of money only to discover that at the end of the party they were just about where they started.

The trite game of bridge attracted a large group of players, and genuine awards were won at this stand game. A radio on the porch furnished music for the dancers, and cider and doughnuts sold from the kitchen, appeased appetites whetted by a lively and entirely successful evening.

The Hallowe'en frolic started with a fried chicken supper served from 8:30 to 7 o'clock. After supper the frolickers wandered to the witch's magic pond, and waited their chances for delving into the mysterious well for treasures, that will be kept as souvenirs of a delightful occasion.

The game of bingo held about 50 players, spellbound on the porch for most of the evening. The numbers were called in the sonorous voices of Vatter Courtwright and Dr. G. D. Phillips.

In the 19th hole, Dr. G. L. Hitler, as Diamond Dick, Joseph P. Noecker as Red Joe and Hildeburne Jones as Danny McGree, ruled over the tables. Clark Will was the harassed cashier. Mrs. Ned Groom and Miss Miriam Ruggles sold souvenirs on the porch and Mrs. D. Adrian Yates and Miss Lucile Neuding dealt with the witch's pond. Mrs. George H. Fickard was the witch.

Fred Clark served delicious sweet cider from a barrel in the kitchen. A spirit of carnival was aided by feathers and caps and Hallowe'en balloons. This Hallowe'en frolic will no doubt become an annual affair at the country club.

Overseeing the card game in the house were Mrs. G. L. Hitler, Mrs. Howard Orr, Mrs. Harry Heffner, and Mrs. Clark Will. They presented the prizes to Mrs. Howard Jones, Miss Adeline Weldon and Mrs. Clayton Moore, for progressive bridge among the women players. The men winners were Ed. F. Delaplaine, A. L. Wilder and Orion King. In a group of single tables among which the players all competed for the same prizes, the successful players were Mrs. Harry S. Lewis and Mrs. Hildeburne Jones.

At 500 Mrs. H. M. Crites and Mrs. Price Ashbrook were the winners. In charge of the five hundred were Mrs. Orion King, Mrs. R. R. Bales and Mrs. Link Mader.

The use of the radio was donated by the Pettit Tire Shop.

W. C. T. U. MEETING FRIDAY NIGHT

All members are urgently invited to be present Friday night at the regular meeting of the Circleville Women's Christian Temperance Union. The meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian church. The delegate to the recent state convention, will give her report.

Mrs. Lulu Marion, president of the Union will preside at the meeting.

PAPYRUS CLUB IS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Howard Jones entertained a her home in Park-pl Wednesday for the pleasure of the Papyrus club of which she is a member.

The regular program was given with the president, Miss Nell M. Weldon in the chair. Mrs. C. C. Waits of N. Court-st was received by unanimous vote as an active member.

The lesson was in charge of Mrs. Gertrude W. Robinson and was taken from Gallishaw's "Two Ways to Write a Story."

A chapter of a serial was read by Mrs. Virginia Clark Kellstadt. Mrs. E. A. Allen submitted the plot of a story entitled "Thistles." Two members reported sales.

After the program daily refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by Mrs. Lucile Weldon Gilmore and Mrs. Emma D. Crites.

QUILT COMPLETED BY SEWING CLUB

The quilt on which the sewing club of the Daughters of Union Veterans have been working for the past months, was finished Wednesday afternoon by the members, 17 of whom were graciously entertained at the home of Mrs. Noah Spangler of W. High-st. Her house was decorated for the occasion with Hallowe'en favors and these were further in evidence in the dainty Hallowe'en lunch that she served.

Mrs. Chris Palm and Miss Nellie Palm assisted Mrs. Spangler in entertaining. The next hostess of the club will be Mrs. Lew Miller.

PANCAKE SUPPER FRIDAY NIGHT

The pancake supper at the Presbyterian church will be served on Friday night from five to seven o'clock. The menu includes pancakes, sausages and baked apples. The public is invited.

SYMPHONY SEASON TO START SOON

A number of music patrons and lovers in Circleville have voiced their intention to attend the concert in Memorial hall at Columbus of the Detroit Symphony orchestra, Monday, Nov. 11, which will open the series of four great orchestra concerts sponsored for the sixth consecutive season by the Symphony club of Central Ohio.

The Detroit Symphony is under the leadership of Ossip Gabrilowitsch, not only internationally famous as an orchestra leader, but equally celebrated as pianist and composer. The Detroit concert will be enhanced by the fact that it will play a concerto number during which Gabrilowitsch will hand over his baton to his assistant, Victor Kolar, while he assumes the pianoforte for the solo work. This, in reality will give patrons the advantage of hearing and seeing two great artists and an orchestra in action at the same time.

Next on the club series in the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra, under the direction of the fiery and capable Fritz Reiner. For the past two years the Cincinnati has presented marvelous concerts in Memorial hall, each one demanding a return engagement. Reiner, who spent the summer abroad brought back some new symphonic pieces which promise to offer new entertainment in this field of music. The concert date is Dec. 2.

The Cleveland orchestra, under Nikolai Sokoloff, will present the third concert on Feb. 10. Sokoloff and his magnificent players have been booked for the sixth consecutive year. Ohio being fortunate in having two of the world's greatest symphony orchestras.

Last, and no doubt the most outstanding attraction of the series will be the appearance for the first time in 22 years of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, under the veteran Dr. Frederick A. Stock, the music master of American orchestras.

The Symphony club considers itself highly fortunate in being able to schedule the Chicago into Memorial hall for March 4, inasmuch as this orchestra very seldom plays outside of its home city. Dr. Stock, this season is celebrating his 25th year as conductor of the Chicago orchestra.

Of interest also is the fact that

Germany's New Foreign Minister

Delegate Havemann, a well-known painter of Hildesheim, who succeeds the late Dr. Gustav Stresemann as Germany's Minister of Foreign Affairs.

The Cincinnati and Chicago orchestras will each give an afternoon concert especially prepared for school children and music pupils. Dr. Stock will direct the Chicago and Vladimir Bakaleinikoff the Cincinnati for these performances which are being offered at nominal cost to children. Between 3000 and 4000 Columbus children attended each of the two concerts given for them last year.

Music lovers wishing to take advantage of this remarkable series may reserve season tickets with Miss Miriam Ruggles, phone 161 Circleville or at the Symphony club box office in the Carl Koch Co., Third and Broad-sts. Seats for single concerts will go on sale Nov. 6. Seats are also reserved for the children's performances.

DINNER TUESDAY FOR GUEST

Misses Laura Mader and Emma Mader entertained to a six o'clock dinner party Tuesday night for Mrs. Lucy W. Jones of Naticoke, Pa., and Mrs. Samuel Ward, Mrs. F. A. Barr, Miss Jennie Lounsbury and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Boyle of Park-pl.

AT COMMUNION IN COLUMBUS

Attending the sunrise communion service at the Memorial hall in Columbus Wednesday at the Woman's Foreign Missionary society convention were Mrs. Earl Hilyard, Mrs. John Neff, Mrs. M. E. Noggle, Mrs. Fred Nicholas and Miss Charlotte Phelps.

DARBYVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Grabill, of Indianapolis, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hammach, Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Lehman, of Columbus, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Grabill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hoover, of Lima, spent the week-end with Mr. Hoover's sister, Miss Sadie Hoover.

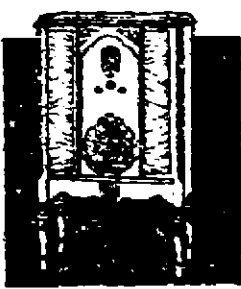

Miss Cora Fullen spent Saturday and Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Fullen.

Mr. and Mrs. Heenan Hall, of Plain City, spent Sunday with Mrs. Hall's sister, Mrs. J. M. Grabill.

The Ladies' Aid will serve lunch on election day in Mr. Grabill's store room. Soup, sandwiches, pie and coffee.

The ladies of the M. E. church will hold their annual Armistice Day chicken dinner and supper on Nov. 11 at the township house. Everybody come and have a good time.

Surveyor's Work

A geodetic survey is one which covers large areas and takes into account the fact that the earth has a curved surface. It is usually called a control survey, because it furnishes geographic positions and other data for more detailed local surveys. In ordinary surveying, the earth's curvature is ignored and points of equal elevation above sea level are treated as being plane. This is satisfactory for a local survey, but when several independent local surveys are brought together their lines are quite apt not to fit unless each survey has been made under a geodetic control survey.
